

An old girl fell asleep gently today ...

At the age of 17 our Ira fell asleep forever. She beat cancer, suffered from epilepsy since she was in the shelter, which we successfully stopped with medication. But now her heart has decided and stopped beating.

Ira, you were the quietest and gentlest dog in the shelter, we will never forget you.

You are no longer alive in this world, but you will live forever in our hearts.

